

1993

-

The choir take part in the Roodepoort International Eisteddfod and received first prize in the Youth Choir Section

1994

-

In July the choir took part in the 16th International Béla Bartók Choral Competition where they won the Folklore section and came second in the mixed Choir section out of more than 30 choirs

-

At the same event, Johann van der Sandt received the prize for the 2nd best conductor

-

Due to changes in the South African Department of Education, the choir had to be privatised and the parents under the leadership of Johann elected a choir management team who took over the responsibility for the choir. Johann also initiated the choir organising and hosting an annual National Youth Choir Festival where regional Youth Choirs from across South and Southern Africa are invited to participate.

-

1994 - CD - Music Grata Deo

1995

-

1995 – CD - Waar gesing word

-

1995 – CD - Rheinberger

1996

-

The toured for 5 weeks through Germany, the Netherlands, Belgium and Russia. The choir was the first South African Youth Choir to perform in Moscow with concerts in the Rachmaninof Hall of the Tchaikovsky Conservatory

-

1996 – CD - Alleluia

-

1996 - CD –Dream a Dream

1998

-

CONDUCTOR: JOHANN VAN DER SANDT

-

The choir toured and held concerts at the Klein Karoo National Art Festival as well as through the Eastern Cape and Western Cape.

-

1998 – CD – 1998 East Rand Youth Choir

-

1998 – CD – O Devine Redeemer

1999

-

Host the National Youth Choir Festival

2000

-

CONDUCTOR: JOHAN BESTER

-

In July, the choir visited the Northern Cape and Namibia and held concerts in various towns as well as with the National Namibian Youth choir in Windhoek and the Mascato Coastal Youth Choir in Swakopmund.

-

National Youth Choir Festival

-

2000 - CD "Siyahamba" was released

2001

-

CONDUCTOR: RICHTER GRIMBEEK

-

Hosted the National Youth Choir Festival

-

The choir performed the Mass in G major with the Barra Due Norwegian Youth Orchestra

-

During December the entered for the 11th Festival of Advent and Christmas Music and the Petr Eben Prize. They were one of 5 choirs that received a gold certificate.

-

The toured Austria, Germany, Belgium and the Netherlands and gave various concerts in all the countries.

-

2001 - CD - "Bridge" was released

2002

-
The choir was invited to a opening event of a World Convention at Sun City.

-
They hosted the 9th National Youth Choir Festival

-
Took part in the Tygerberg International Eisteddfod in Stellenbosch

-
2002 - Double CD – “25 Oosrandse Jeugkoor / East Rand Youth Choir”

2003

-

Mr. Felix Nassi from Benin held a workshop in how to use your body with music as an instrument with different sounds.

-

A choir from C ska Lipa in the Czech Republic visit South Africa and guest of the choir.

-

A Choral Jazz ensemble, Gold Company from the Western Michigan University School of Music with Dr. Steve Zegree as Director visit South Africa in May 2003.

-

A Choir from Belgium, Cantate Domino held a concert with the Youth choir in July.

-

The AKG choir from Bensheim with Manfred Hein visit SA and was the guests of the Youth Choir in August 2003.

-

The first Collegium Musicum Choir Festival was held in July for High School choirs together with the East Rand Youth Orchestra.

-

The Requiem of Fauré was performed together with the Chamber Orchestra of SA in the Voortrekker Monument in August 2003. The soloists were Isabella Eksteen and Rouel Beukes.

-

2003 – CD – “Plea from Africa”